The Monroe Conservation Commission is pleased to recognize resident Tyler Brin as Conservationist of the Month for September. Last May Tyler gathered friends, family and his scouting pals into work parties to begin renovation of the Chalk Hill Nature Trail. For months Tyler and his cohorts sawed, nailed, stained, trimmed, cut, shoveled and sweat to restore this beautiful trail. Tyler chose this undertaking as his Eagle Scout project after a discussion with conservation commission member Mick Visconti. He wanted an outdoor project that would help nature and the community. An avid camper, mountain biker and hiker, Tyler believes wholeheartedly in the Boy Scout credo - "leave no trace". He's proud of the work he's done in leaving the trail in much better shape than he found it and hopes "more people will take advantage of this great spot and get out and enjoy nature".
